J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc., etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

THE MEXICAN IMBROGLIO.

It seems that great importance is attached to certain rumors received from the Rio Grande, to the effect, that a collision had taken place between the U. S. Troops and the Imperialists. We do not believe the report in the sense in which it was received on Wall Street.—It does not mean War, unless our troops were fired upon without just cause or provocation.

The Rio Grande makes almost a right angle at Matamoras; so that a shot fairly aimed at a belligerent might, by accident, inflict injury on the neutral.

We know the President to be wise and prudent, and we are satisfied that he will not allow acts merely equivocal in themselves, to be construed into belligerent hostilities.

There is nothing we would more regret to see, especially at this time, than a war with Mexico. Several perti ent inquiries present themselves in this connection. Is it right? This is a question in which we have no political voice, but we have a moral voice, as it were—if we are to be regarded as being in a position ever to become entitled to the rights and privileges of citizens of the United States, our counsels ought to be received, if our vote is not recorded. The Mexican Republic was probably the most unstable of any in the annals of the world. The people are an inferior and mongrel race; their Republics have proved little else than Military Dictatorships, and consequently, revolutions succeed each other so fast that it resembles to the mind's eye the billows of the sea.

The Government of Maximilian is not Republican in name nor in its features, but practically the same liberty obtains under it, as the Military Republics upon whose debris it was erected. Maximilian's Government is stable. Under it the well-disposed subject, can enjoy as much, if not more of political liberty, as under the rule of so called Republics.

Would we be doing the cause of humanity, or even the Mexicans themselves a good, by forming an alliance with Juarez? Then again, is it politic to do so, at any time, but more especially just now?

We have just emerged from a grand War, which taxed to the utmost tension, North and South, the whole energies of our people. Owing, to its enormous debt and the unsettled condition of affairs generally its bonds and notes are at a discount on Wall St.

This is not as it should be for it is not as it might be.

The National debt must be paid—if we have the desire and the ability to pay, and so impress the capitalists of the Old World, our bonds should and will rise in the market to a premium.

They may not doubt our ability, they may not doubt our present intention to pay, but in view of our internal difficulties and the threatning condition of affairs on the Rio Grande, they go into and take our bonds not as an investment but as a speculation.

The moment the idea of security is lost, speculation begins and discount follows.

Now we are all interested in putting our bonds upon a firm basis, so that our promise to pay may be regarded in the light of a moral certainty that our debt will be paid at maturity. For the greater the discount the heavier our taxes must be, and our debt stated in round numbers, does not portray the full measure of our liabilities.

Then for the sake of our still bleeding and afflicted country, North and South, let us have a long sweet peace. Let us not tempt foreign Powers into War, until we have settled the late "big job," and can produce a receipt in full.

We are not prepared to say with JAY COOKE, that a National debt is a National blessing just now, at least, and if it were not well known that he is deeply interested personally in Government bonds we might suppose that he was poing fun at us, and at the same time we are not prepared to deny that a National debt, such as they have and under the circumstances had, in GREAT BRITAIN, is not a National blessing. Let the Government be so conducted as to secure the cordial co-operation of the States lately in rebellion—let charity, forbearance, and (if you like the term) forgiveness, prevail—let the sentiments inculcated by that man of God, Bishop Potter, prevail, and when the South recuperates her shattered fortunes, her capitalists will invest, and when added to this a feeling of security and lasting peace with its concomitant blessings, obtains, we may, perhaps, realize the correctness of Mr. JAY COOKE's idea.—There is one necessary pre-requisite, and which, we appreciate the full meaning of, the sentiment stated in a late communication from a Washington official published in our paper, that we have no rights to protect, yet we hope that when the hot passions, engendered and kept alive by the late War, shall have had time to cool, a more kindly, charitable feeling may spring up at the North towards us. The pre-requisite to which we allude, and without which our debt will only become heavier day by day, and our foreign relations more complicated from within, as well as without, is that our people should be allowed to feel what they so earnestly yearn for, in which all old parties unite, that the United States of America does not intend to manumit the blacks, to enslave any portion of her white citizens, but it is to be as it once was, the common country of all our people, South as well as North.

ERROR CORRECTED.

We learn that our editorials of yesterday were understood to convey an insinuation towards Judge Battle.

We take the first opportunity to disclaim, emphatically any thing of the kind. Our remarks were only intended to convey the idea that this election was an overture from the "straights," and we had not the remotest idea of insinuating that Judge B. was in any wise a party thereto. We have the highest opinion of Judge Battle's integrity and moral worth—we think he is as pure, and honest, and upright, a Judge as ever adorned the Bench of North Carolina.

North Carolina Legislature.

SENATE.

Friday, December 1.

Senate called to order; prayer by the Rev. Dr. Smeades of the Episcopal church.

The journal of preceding day read.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill providing for the extension of the charter of the Bank of the State of North Carolina to January, 1868.

Mr. Wilson presented a bill to amend the 33rd chapter revised statutes of N. C. so as to privide for five Judges of the Supreme Court, instead of three.

The House resolution, adopting the constitutional amendment, forever abolishing slavery in the United States, being under consideration on its second reading. Mr. Morehead said in substance:

It is not my wish to impede the progress of the resolution nor do I wish to influence other Senators upon so important a subject. I have reflected much and simply wish to state that I cannot vote for the resolution, not that I desire to interfere with the ordinance prohibiting slavery or involuntary servitude in the State.

It seems to me that the resolution passed by Congress and proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the United States, might be construed to frightful length. When once the resolution is adopted and becomes a part of the constitution of the United States, it then becomes the supreme law of the land. It surely cannot be contended that the late freedmen are, or ought to be, in a better condition than the free born negro.

Heretofore this State, and I think, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and perhaps several of the other States, inhibited the immigration of free negroes into their States by legislative enactment. Their right to do so has not been questioned, so far as I am informed.

Should the proposed amendment be adopted, I fear that it can and will be construed so as to give Congress unlimited power in legislating whenever the negro is concerned, and to pass all laws deemed necessary though it places him on an equal footing with the white man! If so he then becomes a citizen; and citizens of each State are entitled to the privileges and immunities of citizens of all the States, and cannot be inhibited from immigration—as all State laws must yield.

President Johnson has, in his re-construction policy with fairness and magnanimity left it to the States to regulate the elective franchise; should it be deemed necessary to secure the freedman in his rights, that the elective franchise should be conferred on him, a State cannot withhold it. So, many other subjects might be enumerated, such as the privileges of giving evidence, intermarrying, bearing arms, &c. I am fully aware of the construction put upon the resolution by Mr. Seward, those who come hereafter, may place a different construction. The State having abolished slavery by their own convention, I think they acted in good faith, and consequently, there is no necessity for further provision. It is the cherished object of my wishes to gain a speedy admission into the Union, and to avoid all difficulty.

Mr. Wiggins moved to lay the subject on the table, and make it the order of the Senate for 1 o'clock to-day.

On this motion, Mr. J. M. Leach called for the ayes and noes, which resulted in the adoption of Mr. Wiggins' motion. Ayes 25; noes 21.

Message received from the House of Commons, proposing to go into an election of U. S. Senator, and that the name of the Hon. W. A. Graham was in nomination.

Mr. J. M. Leach was of the opinion that such action on the part of the Legislature would be premature. The honorable gentleman, whose name was in nomination, had many friends who would be placed in a dilemma as to their vote, as he had not yet received his pardon, and it would be like hurling defiance in the face of the President. He thought that in a few days this impediment would be removed, as a petition generally signed by the members of this Legislature had been sent to the President asking for that result.

A message was received from the House of Commons, proposing to go into an election for a Judge of the 1st judicial circuit, and that the name of Col. David A. Barnes was in nomination. Concurred in; and the vote being taken, Mr. Barnes received all the votes cast except two. Mr. Ferrebee voted for Judge Heath, and Mr. Latham voted for the Hon. W. N. H. Smith.

On motion of J. M. Leach, a message was sent to the House of Commons, proposing to go into an election for two U. S. Senators on Monday next at 12 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Wiggins, a message was sent to the House of Commons, proposing to go into an election for Secretary of State forthwith; the names of Messrs. Best, W. R. Hill, and Mr. Williams being in nomination by the Senate.

Message received from the House concurring in the above proposition, and to the nominations the name of Mr. A. J. Foote.

The Senate proceeded to vote, when Mr. Best received 15, Mr. Hill 3, Mr. Williams 17, Mr. Foote 10.

On motion of Mr. Ferebee, a message was sent to the House of Commons proposing to go into an election for solicitor of the 1st judicial circuit, and that the names of Messrs. Mills L. Eure and Jesse J. Yates were in nomination.

A message was immediately returned to the Senate concurring in the above proposition, and the Senate proceeded to vote. Mr. Eure received 23 votes, and Mr. Yates received 23.

The hour of ten o'clock having arrived, the Senate took up the order for that hour, being the House resolutions adopting the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery in the United States forever. The rules were suspended after the second passage, and the resolution passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Latham, a message was sent to the House proposing to vote forthwith for a Judge of the second judicial district.

The House concurring in the above proposition, the Senate proceeded to vote. Mr. Howard received 23 votes; Mr. Warren 23.

On motion of Mr. Blount, a message was sent to the House of Commons proposing to go into an election for solicitor of the second judicial district; and that the names of Messrs. Faircloth, Scott and Perry were in nomination.

The House having concurred, the Senate proceeded to vote—the House having added to the nomination the name of Mr. W. A. Allen. For Mr. Scott, 11; Mr. Faircloth, 16; Mr. Perry, 5; Mr. Allen, 8.

The Senate again voted for Secretary of State, with the following results: Mr. Williams received 29; Mr. Best 17.

The Senate then adjourned till to-morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

MILITARY COMMISS PROCEEDINGS.

The foflowing is the findings, sentences and decision of the reviewing officer, Gen. RUGER, in the cases of Stephen C. Lee and Joseph Corpening:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF N. C.
Raleigh, N C., Nov. 23d, 1865.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 162. }

1. Before a Military Commission which convened at Salisbury, N. C., on the 13th day of Sept., 1865, pursuant to Special Orders, No. 11, dated Head-Quarters, Dist. of West N. C., Salisbury, N. C, Sept. 12, 1865, of which Lt. Col. R. K. Miller, 128th Ind. Vol. Inf, was President, was arraigned and tried—

1. Stephen C. Lee, citizen of Anson county.

Charge: Murder.

Specification: In this, that he, Stephen C. Lee, of Anson county, did feloniously and with malice aforethought, assault with a deedly weapon, and did kill a colored man named "Reuben," on or about the 18th day of July, 1865.

This in Anson county, N. C.

To which charge and specification the accused plead "Not Guilty."

FINDING:

The Commission having maturely considered the evidence adduced, finds the accused, Stephen C. Lee, citizen of Anson county, N. C. as follows:

Of the specification of the charge, "Guilty."

Of the charge, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Commission therefore sentence the said Stephen C. Lee, "To be hanged by the neck until he is dead, at such time and place as the Commanding General shall direct." Every member of the Court concurring.

2. Joseph Corpening, citizen of Caldwell county, North Carolina.

Charge: Assault with intent to kill.

Specification: In this, that Joseph Corpening, citizen, (as aforesaid,) did maliciously, feloniously, and with malice aforethought, shoot with intent to kill, one "Lawson," a freedman in his employ, without a just cause.

This on or about the eighth day of August, 1865, at or near his residence, on Low Creek, Caldwell county, North Carolina.

To which charge and specification the accused pleaded, "Not Guilty."

FINDING.

The Commission having maturely considered the evidence adduced, find the accused, as follows:

Of the specification to the charge, "Guilty," except the words "with intent to kill."

Of the charge, "Not Guilty;" but "guilty of shooting with intent to maim."

SENTENCE.

And the Commission does therefore sentence the said Joseph Corpening, "to be imprisoned for the term of ninety days in the jail of Caldwell county, or at such other place as the Commanding General shall direct," and to pay to the United States a fine of five hundred dollars, to be paid to the Chief Assistant Quartermaster, Department of N. C, and in case this fine is not paid before the first day of December, 1865, he shall be imprisoned an additional six months longer.

II. The proceedings, findings and sentence in the case of Stephen C. Lee are disapproved. From the evidence, it appears that the killing was not premeditated, or the result of malice. Both the prisoner and the victim seem to have made threats of killing the one to the other, and to have been under mutual apprehension of each other. The findings of the Court should have been manslaughter, and the sentence in accordance with such finding.

The prisoner, Stephen C. Lee, will be released from arrest.

The proceedings, findings and sentence in the case of Joseph Corpening, citizen, are approved and confirmed. The fine will be paid to the Chief Quartermaster of the Department of North Carolina, and the sentence, so far as it relates to confinement, will be executed under direction of the commanding officer at Morganton, N. C.

DIED:

In this City, on 4th Dec., 11 o'clock, Mr. John Correll, an old and respectable citizen of this place.

LOCAL.

THIEVES.

We believe that Salisbury is infested with an organized corps of thieves and banditti. There seems to be a thorough organization with headquarters at this place. But their depredations are not perpetrated upon the citizens of Salisbury exclusively; for we hear complaints from all sections of the country. We learn from Major P. W. Hairston that he has been stripped of nearly all of his stock—hogs, cattle, and house-hold furniture have been carried off and destroyed by robbers and outlaws. The same story reaches us from other parts of the county.

It was only last Saturday night that Mr. J. M. Coffin's lot was entered, his milch cow killed, skinned, and carried off. This is only one of the many of its kind our citizens have suffered of late.—

We call upon the conservators of the law to protect the people against these outrages, whether committed by whites or blacks. It is believed, however, that, in the large majority of cases, the latter are the offenders. And, indeed, there is no other conclusion, when we see so many negroes loittering about the streets and through the conntry with no apparent means of support. They must have food, and it is naturally supposed they procure it by thieving. There are many honorable exceptions among the negroes, some are industrious and are anxious to make an honest living.—These should be favored and encouraged. But idlers and vagrants should be taken up and placed in a house of correction.

National Thanksgiving Day.

Proclamation by President Johnson.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity and harmany with a great enlargement of civil liberty: And Whereas our Heavenly Father has also during the present year graciously averted from us the calamities of foreign war, pestilence and famine, while our granaries are full of the fruits of an abundant season: And Whereas righteousness exalteth a nation, while sin is a reproach to any people:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to the people thereof that they do set apart and observe the first Thursday of December next as a day of National Thanks—given to the Creator of the Universe for these deliverences and blessings. And I do further recommend, that on the occasion the whole people make confession of ournational sins against His infinite goodness, and with one heart and one mind implore the Divine guidance in the ways of national virtue and holiness.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six-
[L.S.] ty five, and of the Independence of the U. States of America the nineteenth.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:

WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

THE FARMER,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE, THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC ARTS, AND TO HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "THE FARMER," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptation, and command, in return, a remunerating patronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a Journal of the highest order of its kind. It is to nothing short of this high standard of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain it, will be an object of unremitting effort and unsparing liberality of expenditure. It seeks recognition as a worthy organ of these cardinal branches of national industry, of which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery, without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly tsentative, await the slow progress of a we mayeffort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and general ization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidance and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehible of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behal of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. Proposals for any of these routes, and nominations for Postmasters, may be addressed to Gov Holden, to be forwarded by him to Washington. Females may act as Postmasters, and there is no objection to appionting them.

We learn that the granting of this special temporary mail service is due to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. R. J. Powell, the State Agent in Washington, aided by W. S. Mason and W. J. Palmer, Esqr's. of this city. We believe that no such favor has been extended to any other State.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric. with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in thi senterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in thegrave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

H. RIVES POLLARD,
Richmond, Va.

Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.
